Assistive Technology

Assistive technology facilitates communication, motor, education, recreation, vocation and independence.  Covered Bridge Special Education District provides assistance to students with disabilities and those working with them to help maximize the benefit of their education.  This includes consultation, assessments, training students and teachers, dissemination of information and acquisition of assistive technology.

Technology makes tasks easier for individuals without disabilities.
Assistive Technology makes tasks possible for individuals with disabilities.