Functional Curriculum Coach

Covered Bridge Special Education District provides a functional curriculum coach who guides, trains and consults with educators to provide support using best educational practices. The functional coach also chooses research-based materials and establishes priorities for students with moderate and severe disabilities.